

Affordable Housing Program

Do I Qualify?

Eligibility Criteria

- Household must meet Resident Selection Criteria, including credit and criminal background screening.
- Applicant's household size must be appropriate for the apartment (minimum of one per bedroom and maximum of two per bedroom plus one).
- Households must have gross income at or below 55% of the Area Medium Income for family size. See Chart below.
- Households must apply to an available lottery during the application period. Visit <https://housing.sfgov.org>
- Households must disclose all income and assets and asset income is included in the calculation of total household income. Assets in restricted retirement accounts (applicant cannot access the account without retiring or terminating employment) are not included in the calculation of total household assets.

Current Income Limits*

HOUSEHOLD SIZE	55% MAXIMUM INCOME LIMITS*
1 Person	$55,450
2 Person	$63,400
3 Person	$71,350
4 Person	$79,250
5 Person	$85,600

* HUD Income Limits (Income Limits are subject to change annually.)

- Rent is determined based on the income limits and unit size.
- All household members age 18 and over must sign all required documents, certifying that household composition, income, assets and other information is true and accurate.
- All household members age 18 and over must sign a Lease Agreement, an Affordable Housing Program Lease Addendum outlining Program requirements, a VAWA addendum, and any other required move-in documentation.
- Recertification is required annually to determine continued eligibility. Household income may increase up to the 175% AMI current income limit adjusted for household size.